Engagement Is Announced of Katharine Twyford to Ernest C. F. Greeff;
Mary Hebert to Wed

Huldah Ross a Bride
Dorothy Walker Is Married to Prescott S. Bush;
Reception Held at Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fillmore Hyde, of Morristown, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth T. B. Hyde, to Richard H. Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cobb, of 1186 Lexington Avenue, New York. Miss Hyde attended Brearley School, and is a member of the Junior League. Mr. Cobb is a member of Harvard, class '18, and has served in the navy during the war.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Beaumont Twyford, of this city, and Wawayanda, Mahwah, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Katharine to Ernest C. F. Greeff, son of Mrs. Ernest F. Greeff, of 37 West Eighty-eighth Street and Quogue, Long Island. Miss Twyford received her early education abroad, and graduated from the Velin School, of this city. Mr. Greeff is a graduate of Williams, class '17, and a member of the firm of Greeff & Co. He belongs to the Manhattan, New York Athletic and Williams clubs.

Mary Winslow Hebert Is Engaged to N. T. Bolles

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Mary Winslow Hebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Octave Ditton Hebert, to Norman Taylor Bolles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Bolles, of Chicago. Mr. Bolles served during the war as a lieutenant in the United States Navy.

Another engagement just announced is that of Miss Helen Marie Updgrove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Updgrove, of Yonkers, to Archie Edward Rhinehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rhinehart, of West 124th Street. Miss Updgrove is a graduate of Graham School, and Mr. Rhinehart, who served as a captain of infantry during the war, is a graduate of Columbia, class of '14.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Everett Bruggerhof, of New York City, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lucy Otis Bruggerhof, to Norris Edward Pierson, of Stamford, Conn. Miss Bruggerhof soon will be graduated from the Presbyterian Hospital. Mr. Pierson is a graduate of Princeton and Harvard Law School, and during the war was a captain in the air service and a pilot commanding officer of the 90th Aero Squadron on the French front. He now is engaged in the practice of law in Stamford.

Dorothy Walker Becomes
Bride of Prescott S. Bush

A fashionable summer wedding took place at Narragansett Pier yesterday, when Miss Dorothy Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Walker, of New York, and Kennebunkport, Me., was married to Prescott S. Bush, formerly of Columbus, Ohio. Bishop Tyler, of North Dakota, officiated.

Miss Nancy Walker, a sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Isabel Rockefeller, Miss Hope Lincoln and Miss Mary Keck, of New York; Miss Elizabeth Trotter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Trotter, of Philadelphia, and Miss Martha Pittman and Miss Ruth Lionberger, of St. Louis. James S. Bush, a brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the ushers were Frank Shephard, Knight Wooley, Elery James and G. H. Walker Jr., of New York; Richard Bentley and Henry Isham, of Chicago, and John Shepley and Henry Fenimore Cooper, of St. Louis.

A reception followed at the summer home of the bride's parents, at Surf Lodge, Kennebunkport, Me.

Mr. Bush is a graduate of Yale University and a member of the Junior League. His bride has been identified with the work of the Junior League, and is popular in society.

Miss Huldah Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Smith Ross, of White Oak Ridge Road, Short Hills, N. J., was married yesterday in the rectory of "the Little Church Around the Corner" to Walter MacDougall Livingston, son of Mrs. Edward Livingston, of Elizabeth, N. J. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. George Clarke Houghton. There were no attendants, and only relatives were present. Both the bride and bridegroom saw active service during the World War. Mr. Livingston was attached to the First Army, while Miss Ross served one year in a French hospital under the American Red Cross. She now is a member of the Overseas Service League.

Mr. and Mrs. Livingston will pass their honeymoon motoring in New England and the White Mountains. On their return they will live at 72 Palisade Road, El Morn, N. J.

Dr. Annin V. St. George, assistant director of Bellevue Hospital Laboratories, surprised his friends yesterday by sending them cards which announced his marriage to Miss Emily Wiedemann, of Englewood, N. J., on Thursday last, in the Italian Garden Room, in the Hotel Vanderbilt.

The couple are now en route by motor to Canada, where they will spend a month. Dr. St. George, who is a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, has been assistant director of laboratories of Bellevue Hospital for many years. He was a captain in the army during the World War.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Woodward Haven have Miss Dorothy Iselin, of New York, as their guest in Stockbridge. Ernest Iselin, who was visiting his aunt, Miss Edith Caylus, at the Adams Inn, Stockbridge, went to New York, to-day.

Mrs. William Averill Harriman, of New York, is visiting her grandfather, Charles Lanier, at Allen Winden. Mr. Lanier, who was ill at his home, is able to take a short drive each day.

Miss Emily Tuckerman is visiting

Mrs. J. West Roosevelt at Northeast Harbor, Me.

Dr. and Mrs. William Gilman Thompson, of New York, are late arrivals at the Graylock Hotel in Williamstown. Others there are Mrs. John T. Terry, Charles C. Paulding and Clifford Brokaw, of New York, and Colonel F. P. Reynolds and Mrs. Reynolds, of West Point.

Miss Minerva Beebe returned to Great Barrington to-day from Lake Forest, Ill., where she was a guest of Mrs. John H. Hamline.

Mrs. Harry Stoddart, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Wilcox, of Meriden, Conn., are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Pearson, at Edgewood, in Great Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turley Mackie are spending the rest of the month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Van Cortlandt, at Sharon, Conn.

Miss Pearl Vogel a Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Vogel, of 993 Park Avenue and West End, N. J., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Pearl Vogel, to Stewart Hall Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Steinhart. The marriage took place on August 2 at noon at "Rosedale" the summer home of the bride's parents.

The young couple sailed for Europe on August 3 for an extended trip abroad, and will make their home in Westchester on their return.

Exhibition of Art Is Opened at Newport

Annual Costume Ball Is To Be Held on the Night of August 18

The Art Association of Newport has begun a series of exhibitions of art and allied subjects to continue until the end of the month, which is attracting considerable attention from summer visitors. The events, in the nature of a festival, will be featured by the annual artists' costume ball on the night of August 18.

At the Cushing Memorial Building a children's festival and exhibition of sketches, modeling and arts and crafts is to be held from August 8 to 19.

From August 11 to 17 an exhibition of artistic photographs of cathedrals abroad and at home, to be held at the galleries of the association, is announced. On the second afternoon the Rev. Dean Bratenahl, of the National Cathedral of Washington, D. C., will give an illustrated lecture on "Cathedrals in Relation to National Life."

Commencing August 18 the association will hold an exhibition of pictures by W. C. Emerson, appearing under the title "Poems in Paint." This event will close on August 31.

During the past week Newport was favoured with exhibitions of portraits and oil painting by Rosamond Tuck and by Julian Lamar.

Hospital Is Given $100,000

An anonymous gift of $100,000 to the Downtown Hospital Association's fund for the Broad Street Hospital was announced yesterday by William H. Childs, the treasurer. This brought the total collections for the first year up to $256,000. Mr. Childs said, the rest of the total having been turned in by the twenty trade committees and the women's committee.

One-half of the million-dollar fund sought will be used to complete and equip the hospital's new building, the remainder for a maintenance fund.
